Who are we?

English UK South West is a group of language schools, colleges and universities that share a vision - to welcome foreign students to the wonderful South West of England, provide fond memories that will last a lifetime and ensure that students receive the best learning opportunities.

From small family owned schools to large, internationally renowned universities, the region offers a wide range of study options to suit all requirements.

Do not forget that all members of English UK South West are accredited by the British Council and are members of English UK. This means you can be sure you are looking at top-quality English language centres and courses.

Why should you choose the South West?

- The South West has some of the most famous tourist attractions in the country
- The South West is widely considered to be the region providing the best quality of life anywhere in England
- The cost of living is considerably cheaper than London
- The people are very friendly, helpful and approachable
- There is excellent residential and homestay accommodation
- The region is easily accessible - getting here from anywhere in the world is easy
- Good transportation links make exploring the rest of the UK easy. A weekend or even day trip to London is convenient, but you probably will not want to leave the South West once you are here!

The premier destination for language students!

Overall, the South West of England is the perfect location for studying the English language. It is an area steeped in ancient history and harbours some of the most beautiful countryside and breathtaking coastline to be found in the UK. There are wonderful and fascinating destinations to explore all year round - from the magnificent city of Bath and the surfing paradise of Newquay to the ancient towns of Salisbury and Totnes.

A rich variety of entertainment and attractions is on offer for all ages. Maybe you would like to go fossil hunting along the Jurassic coast, scuba dive amongst wrecked ships, sail in clear waters or simply enjoy our rich variety of culture and history? Whichever options you choose, you are sure to have a fantastic time in the South West.

The South West is home to some of the best music venues, pubs, clubs, festivals and restaurants in the world or if you are a supporter of the arts there are plenty of internationally renowned galleries and theatres for you to choose from.

- A huge range of outdoor activities and watersports
- Internationally renowned galleries and theatres including the Tate in St Ives, the Theatre Royal and the Minack
- Some of the best music venues, pubs, clubs, festivals and restaurants
- Ancient historical sites including Tintagel, Stonehenge and Roman Baths
- Breathtaking coastline and countryside
- World class attractions such as the Eden Project, National Maritime Museum and National Marine Aquarium

Where can I study?

English UK South West language centres offer a wide variety of locations and courses to suit your needs - all accredited by the British Council and all members of English UK. Learning environments range from summer schools to executive centres, from boarding schools to colleges and courses range from examination to English and golf, from preparation for university to short intensive general English. All centres and programmes are detailed on our website www.englishuksouthwest.com. On this website, you can easily find full up-to-date details and photos about each school and follow clear links through to the schools and programmes that are of most interest to you.

Getting here is Easy!

You can arrive by road, sea, rail or air; our regions rapidly expanding airports (including Bristol, Exeter, Bournemouth and Plymouth) mean that you can usually find a convenient flight. Airlines are constantly increasing routes to the area giving us an expanding list of possibilities. Many students prefer to arrive in the London airports: getting to the South West is not difficult and ground transfers are comfortable and convenient - all destinations are easy to get to and our schools have comprehensive experience in transferring students both quickly and safely.

What are you waiting for?

This is a wonderful part of the UK and our language centres have the experience necessary to make your studies enjoyable and rewarding. Whether you wish to learn English in order to develop your career, improve your education, or simply for fun - we are the best choice for you. Come and join the growing number of students enjoying this beautiful destination - in the words of just one student: '...it's better than I could imagine.'
